'Danny Dither' Postponed; Choir Concert Dec. 6

Postponement of the operetta, "The Hither and Thither of Danny Dither," has been announced by Miss Vivian Stewart, of the music department. The production, originally scheduled for December 1 and 2, will be presented on January 5 and 6.

On December 6, in the Washington Junior High school auditorium, the music department will present a concert by the Hartnell College choir. Groups in the concert will be the men's glee club and women's glee club. Featured soloists will be Shirley Baquette, coloratura, and Don Schrupp, baritone.

As We See It

By PAT POLLOCK

Although it would be impossible to single out every Hartnell student who worked to make Homecoming a success, we feel an "overall" thank you is in order.

A large share of the credit must go, of course, to Wayne Ingols, general chairman for the day, whose job it was to coordinate all Homecoming activities. Roy Taylor, parade chairman, had a difficult job on his hands, and organized and carried it out successfully.

Many have remarked that the parade was one of the most colorful Hartnell has ever "produced" on Armistice Day. The decision of the inter-club council that all floats must conform to a "Centennial" theme, we feel was a wise one.

Alpha Gamma Sigma should be commended for its handling of the election and coronation of a queen, as should the alumni association and all campus clubs and organizations which entered floats and exhibits.

Float Award

There has been a suggestion, however, in regard to next year's method of awarding the prize for the best parade float. The judges gave the award, for the second year, to Hartnell A. & M. There is no question that the A. & M. deserved the honor for its outstanding entry. It is felt by some, though, that next year A. & M. floats should be judged in a separate division, for two reasons. First, that more equipment and material is available to A. & M. students. Secondly, that these students are allowed to spend class time constructing floats, where members of other organizations must assemble their entries after school hours or at night.

Rooters

With just a few exceptions, rooters turned out for the Homecoming game in white, and the rooting section was mighty impressive looking. Head Yell Leader Dewey Chambers has requested all rooters to again wear white and make pompoms for the Thanksgiving Day game. Let's try to make it a 100 per cent "sea of white" next Thursday.

Monterey's "Little Brown Keg"

Dewey Chambers, above left, is shown drinking a toast to the Hartnell Panther while Gardner Pond fills his glass from the liquor keg recently completed by Monterey Peninsula College. The keg, according to Chambers, was offered by the Hoganites of MPC as a symbol of supremacy between Hartnell and MPC football teams. Chambers and Pond claim they went on a secret mission to Monterey last Monday and returned with the keg which Monterey retrieved Wednesday. It will be given to the winner of each annual grid contest between the Panthers and the Lobos, and was offered to keep students interested in things other than vandalism around football time each year.

Commission Rules On Official 'H' Emblem

Student commissioners ruled Tuesday that the official college emblem is an "H" rather than "HC" and requested all campus organizations to conform to the ruling. Several organizations, it was pointed out, have been using "HC" instead of the official "H".

A permanent budget committee, to make recommendations to the commission, was appointed by President George Miljanich. Committee members will include Miljanich, Miss Ruth Rothrock, Mr. Jerry Girdner, Gardner Pond, Tom Ford, and Evelyn Temmermand.

SCHOOL RING

Plans are being made to offer students a Hartnell College ring. The proposed design was shown to commissioners Tuesday by a representative of Josten's jewelry firm.

The ring, now on display at the student store, is of gold with Panthers on either side of a center stone, and would be inscribed with the college name. The student's initials and class year will be hand engraved on the inside.

Class meetings will be held soon to give students an opportunity to see the ring and inform them of prices. Mr. D. K. Humphrey of Josten's will be here November 29 from 8:30 a. m. until noon, to take orders.

Students, Alumni Enjoy Homecoming

WHITED GIVEN PLAYER AWARD

Hartnell Homecoming was a successful affair with many alumni showing up for the game with San Francisco City College and for the dance following the game. Outstanding player award for the Homecoming game was presented to Bill Whited.

Whited Gets Trophy

Winner of the best float award in the Armistice Day parade, was Hartnell school of agriculture and mechanics. Their float, carrying out the Centennial theme, featured two miners, one panning gold from a stream and the other frying pancakes over an open fire. The pancakes were tossed to the crowd and were very tasty, too, hungry bystanders reported.

Although fewer alumni than had been expected came to the barbeque on the Hartnell campus, most of the diners were pleased with the excellence of the meal. Total number of alumni at the affair was estimated at 75. Most of the visitors were seated around tables by the cafeteria and the remainder overflowed into the cafeteria itself.

Hartnell was on the losing end of a 15 to 12 score in the Homecoming game played at Salinas High school stadium, but nevertheless, comments from people who watched the game indicate that the Panthers were in there fighting all the way.

Following the barbeque, alumni were entertained in the college little theater by the college group which presented the weekly radio program "College Is the Life." Their program had been cancelled for the day by KDON so that it could broadcast the football game. Another part of the program included two pantomimes by Dick Rohrbacher, and a short dialogue by Richard Cimino from the play "Candlelight."

Mr. Harold Ulrici talked to a small group of alumni about the need for supporting the educational theater. He went on to describe the next four plays which

Panthers Tangle With Rival Lobos Thanksgiving Day

Two arch rivals, the Monterey College Lobos and the Hartnell College Panthers, are sharpening their claws for this season's Thanksgiving Day gridiron attraction on the Lobos' home field at 2 p.m.

The Monterey eleven still tastes the bitter tang of last fall's 59-7 beating by the Panthers. This year the Lobos have vowed "things will be different."

Hartnell is meanwhile licking its chops anticipating another win over the Peninsula eleven. Hartnell has been on a starvation diet this year.

Monterey has built a perpetual trophy for the winner of the turkey tussle — an old oaken keg. Hartnell took premature possession of the keg for a "brief" period and will attempt to get legal rights to the trophy next week.

Tonight the Panthers meet the Modesto College Pirates in an N.C. J.C. conference battle in Modesto. Modesto is currently just one step above the Hartnell eleven and a triumph for the locals will boost them to a tie with the Pirates.

Thanksgiving Is Deadline For Soph Pictures

All sophomore pictures for La Reata will be taken before Thanksgiving, it was announced today by Camille Johnson, editor.

Those who have failed to keep their appointments should contact either Camille or Mr. Stuart Du-four before Thanksgiving, as the sophomore section of the book will be completed and prepared for the printer December 1. Any sophomore student who has not had his picture taken by that time will not be included in the year book. Freshman group pictures were taken Wednesday of this week.

La Reata pledge cards are now on sale and may be obtained from any member of the staff or in room 9. A $5 prize will go to some student who has bought his pledge card before December 1.

the college drama society will present this year.

Queen Crowned Thursday

Homecoming ceremonies began Thursday with the crowning of Queen Carol Stormont. Miss Stormont was accompanied by her attendants, Jackie Day, Jacqueline Gaudin, Marilee Hubbard, and Ada Kasje. The activities were presided over by George Miljanich, student body president, and took place in the men's gym.

CAMPUSOLOGY

By BOB WHITE

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lunceford who were married just one week ago Sunday. She is the former Miss Ella Mae Hollis. They were married at a private ceremony at the home of Mrs. Lunceford's aunt. The couple spent their honeymoon in San Francisco.

Three worried people at the alumni barbeque were Frank Armbruster, Frank Davis, and Kenneth Koenig. They were giving out with dire threats of mutiny and so forth until Mr. Carlisle reassured them. Cause of all the worry was whether they were going to get a free meal or not. Seems they had missed lunch and had been slaving over a hot barbeque pit while everyone else went to the game. Can you blame them?

Homer Smith, sports editor on the Panther Sentinel, has devised a new method of saving money on socks. At least that's the excuse he gave last Tuesday when he showed up at the office wearing one blue sock and one green one.

Mr. J. B. Lemos showed up at the barbeque in a flashy apron and took over the role of head chef or something. He stood around and supervised things while the cooks did the work. Mr. John Murrin arrived complete with tin tray, knives and forks, and a dish towel which he later stuffed into his collar for laughs.

The little guy who stole the show at the homecoming queen's coronation when he came marching out with the queen's crown and sceptre is Mr. McCann's son Ricky. He is nine years old.

Tabby's identity is still a deep dark mystery but people have gotten over their first curiosity. Tabby is . . . just Tabby.

Some of the clubs and organizations had trouble no doubt getting conveyances for the parade floats. They obtained them, it is assumed, from managers and bosses and others who had charge of such vehicles. Alpha Gamma Sigma, always a classy outfit (what can you expect with so many brainy people in the crowd) had to go one step better than everybody else and get theirs from none other than Mayor Raffetto himself. Joe Matusek, Alpha Gamma Sigma member, who returned the truck, says that Mr. Raffetto is a swell person.

Seek Answer For Union

Under the chairmanship of Dr. Luella Hall, a committee has been studying other student unions with the purpose of making definite recommendations concerning Hartnell's future student union. Plans of a student union now under construction in North Dakota and information about a junior college student union in South Carolina have been examined by the group.

Other members of the committee include Mr. Richard Carlisle and Mr. Joaquin Market, of the alumni association; students Evelyn Temmermand and George Miljanich; and Mr. Henry Cassady, who, with Dr. Hall, will represent the faculty. The committee is studying possible location as well as the plans of other student unions.

All Musicians
Invited to Club

Members of the Music Club have invited all students interested in any form of music, from "bop" to Beethoven, to join the group. Directed by Mr. Lorell McCann, the club meets weekly, either Tuesday or Thursday, at 11 o'clock, in room 16.

Cassady Attends
J.C. Conference

Mr. Henry Cassady is now attending a meeting of the California state junior college association being held in Bakersfield. The conference, which opened with a dinner on Wednesday night, will wind up today.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss various problems facing the administrators of the state's junior colleges. Because he is president of the Northern California JC association, Mr. Cassady is a member of the executive board of the state group.

Hartnell Grads Still Study

News regarding the whereabouts and activities of former Hartnell College graduates and students was received by the Alumni Association.

Numerous Hartnell graduates are continuing their studies at higher institutions. San Jose State College lists the following as Hartnell transfers: Ron Rico, Joyce Anderson, Lee Viles, Lorraine Signorotti, Arthur Ackermann, Clara Bomar, Bob Dayton, Warren Coffey, Joan Lawton, Frances Deluchi, Bernard Teffertiller, Don Enos, and Jim Collins.

Students attending the University of California who formerly were enrolled here are as follows: Bob Pia, Frances Munoz, Norm Nuck, Ron Marrington, Audrey Mawdsley, Bill Tracker, Barbara Elkins, Ruth Alarid, Jeanne Stanberry, Carolyn (Honey) Harris, and Jean Emery.

Several students have stepped into full time employment after graduation in the Hartnell business division. Among those working are Mary Marinovich, Ramona Kilfoyl, Inez Pezzini, Donna Sherman, Dolores Ruiz, Laurene Nielsen, Sylvia Mulliner, and Mary Joan Rodriguez.

Topper Arnett, former Panther Sentinel editor a few years back, is attending Sacramento State College. Jack Bell, sports editor last year, is attending USC. Barbara Timmins, one-time president of Hartnell Alpha Gamma Sigma, is enrolled at Stanford.

Edwin Lanini, blind student who attended Hartnell, is now continuing his education at San Jose State.

Club Holds Dinner, Program

Hartnell Westminster Club held a luncheon and a program of entertainment yesterday in the home economics parlor.

Part of the entertainment was a talk by Reverend M. L. Kemper, of the First United Presbyterian Church, and two musical numbers by Miss Beverly Silva. Club President Allan Olsen was in charge of the program and meeting.

Pioneer Costumes
Used in Parade

Original costumes were worn in the queen's Homecoming float, according to Dr. Luella Hall. The costumes for the affair were donated by Marilee Hubbard and Mrs. Arthur Tregenza.

Queen Carol Stormont wore a red woolen dress trimmed in maroon velvet of that period. Marilee Hubbard was gowned in a dress worn by an actress of that era who appeared in the "Plainsmen." A dress that was actually worn coming over the plains, was worn by Jacque Gaudin.

In place of the traditional queen's float, a covered wagon carried the girls, who were grouped around a camp fire. On the float committee were Frank Davis, chairman; Joe Matousek, Pat Wagoner, Alice Page, and Helen Wolber. Frank Armbruster assisted the committee.

Cast Changes Made in Everyman

Several cast changes have been made for the production "Everyman." Don LoPresti will replace Richard Cimino in the role of Death; Cimino will in turn take over the role of Everyman in place of LoPresti; Marguerite Sanders will replace Juledra Lewis in the role of Good Deeds; Five Wits will be portrayed by Richard Rohrbacher instead of Gloria Scroggs.

Backstage, Rohrbacher will be the electrician; Miss Scroggs will be in charge of the wardrobe, and Bob Kensinger will handle the sets.

Future Writers In Outing

Hartnell creative writing class made its first field trip of the year two weeks ago Thursday when it visited the Carmel writers' club at Carmel.

Mrs. Glen Clairmont, club director, extended a warm welcome to the Hartnell group.

Stories written by members of the class were read during the meeting. Following the reading, they were given constructive criticism by the club members.

After the meeting, the creative

HAWAIIAN CLUB TAKES OVER ON HARTNELL CAMPUS

Hawaii to Hartnell.

At the beginning of the fall semester a contingent of Hawaiians turned in their leis for dink caps and other frosh paraphernalia. Thus a combination football team and glee club invaded the halls of Hartnell.

This was not the last to be heard about this group, for not only out on the football field and at the various service clubs in Salinas did they make their names known, but by now practically everyone on the campus has heard from, or of, the new Hawaiian club.

Jim Akimo, head of the House of Hawaiians over on Central avenue, and Henrietta McKeague decided that since many of the colleges and universities have Hawaiian clubs, why not Hartnell? But at this, they took a point of departure from these other clubs and decided to throw the membership open to all interested students.

At present, all the students in the class are men. Miss Faith Fraser, class instructor, said she would like to have some women register in the class for the spring semester.

Queen Carol Has Busy Day

Queen Carol Storment had a busy day last Friday. Miss Storment, after being crowned by Student Body President George Miljanich Thursday, found her duties rather arduous. She found out it isn't possible just to sit still and look pretty.

Miss Storment, after leading the parade in downtown Salinas, was introduced to the crowd at the halftime intermission of the San Francisco-Hartnell football battle. Grabbing a bite to eat, Queen Carol returned to the college where she was interviewed before the alumni and friends.

"TRINE" STOP ME

By PHIL TRINE

Big question this week is whether we should believe GARDNER POND'S and DEWEY CHAMBERS' story on how they obtained Monterey's oaken cask. Somehow it just seems illogical to assume the peninsula men would give up their prize possession without a fight. Dewey and Gardner claim they just "walked in and then walked out with the cask." Well, we're not one to doubt their integrity and courage but . . . Although we have a sneaking suspicion there's some political maneuvering behind this action, we're all for it. The old oaken keg will make an appropriate trophy for the Monterey-Hartnell feud.

JACKIE DAY pulled the prize boner of the week. Seems Jackie got her directions a little mixed. After attending the dance Miss Day accompanied by CLAUDE BROGDEN, GEORDIE CORBETT, DEAN STAMATOPOULUS, and others, went to a party on the peninsula. Returning via the Castroville cutoff, Miss Day and her companions arrived in Watsonville. Jackie turned a bit red, and exclaimed "where are we." She was promptly informed that they were in Watsonville. Miss Day slid down in her seat and mildly squeaked "I left my car back in Salinas." It's not everyone who can forget their transportation.

Rams Take Panthers, 15-12

Whited Scores Both Touchdowns, Wins Alumni Trophy, No One Injured, Oliviera Returns

Hartnell's homecoming game with City College of San Francisco ended 15-13 in favor of CCSF. The Panthers played good football in the second half but failed to overcome the lead that the Rams had piled up in the first half. Hartnell took the opening kickoff and Frankie Paz returned it to the Hartnell 38. Three plays later Bill Walker took Wally Wong's pass and raced to the Ram's 15 where he was hauled down. The Panthers failed to make a first down after a 5-yard penalty and the Rams took over.

Later in the quarter Frank Puckett took one of Al Nethercutt's passes and scored CCSF's first touchdown. The same thing happened only seconds later and the Rams had a 13-point lead. This time Nethercutt passed to Stan Hahn for the score.

Before too long Hartnell got into the act on a pass from Bill Walker to Bill Whited for the Panthers' first score. The play covered 60 yards.

In the third period the Panthers gambled with the ball on their own 1-foot line. They lost, and the Rams were given two more points. However, the Panthers never quit trying and their perseverance was rewarded in the middle of the fourth period when Bill Whited took one of Bob Swan's passes in the end zone for his second touchdown of the afternoon.

The Rams were tired and it appeared as though the Panthers would be able to make one more before the gun. The Panthers started on their way when they got the ball again, but a 15-yard penalty for illegal use of the hands cut short all efforts that the Panthers had made. The game ended without either team scoring again.

Joe Oliviera returned to the lineup and played very well on defense for the Panthers. Bob Burton

Panthers to Modesto For Tonight's Encounter

Burton Out, Key Tonight's Captain

Hartnell fans will have to take to the road to witness the Panther's last two games of the season. This week will be a jaunt into the San Joaquin Valley when the Panthers meet the Pirates of Modesto College. In past seasons Modesto has been a very strong power in the league, but not so this year.

Burton Through For This Season

Bob Burton, center for Hartnell, has revealed that he will play no more football for Hartnell this season. He has received a concussion of the brain in the course of the season and has been taking tests to define the extent of his injury.

Bob played some terrific ball, both defensive and offensive, this season, and his loss will be severely felt by the Panthers.

His vacancy has left a hole that will be filled by Francis Rianda who is another good boy that has played three 60-minute games this season.

Bob is majoring in physical education and is planning to transfer to the University of Oregon this next spring to continue his education. He is not sure whether or not he will be able to continue playing football as his injury may prevent further participation.

suffered what may be a minor concussion. The Panthers, for the first time this season, incurred no injuries in the contest. However, Jim Miyasato has aggravated his injured ankle and it may not be as strong as it should be for tonight's encounter with the Pirates at Modesto.

They opened their season successfully against Monterey with a 6-0 win. Since then it has been a succession of losses: 2-19, Menlo; 6-28, Stockton; 0-14, San Mateo, and a decisive defeat at the hands of El Camino.

Hartnell has lost to Menlo, Stockton, and San Mateo, also, but by comparatively close scores: 21-12, 13-6, and 20-13, respectively.

It is doubtful whether Miyasato, Fred Manteufel, or Bill Walker will see much action in the Modesto game as old injuries were aggravated in the San Francisco encounter. Another player injured in the game with the Rams was Bob Burton, who supposedly has a minor concussion. It is undecided whether or not Bob will play any more this season.

This week the Panthers are taking it comparatively easy and trying to add more polish and zip to their running attack. It could be noticed that Hartnell has a potential Le Baron on the team if the antics of quarterback Bob Swan are noticed. This week "Swanie" has been trying triple-spinners, double-fakes, and many other movements that are supposed to fool the opposing team.

The team is pointing for the Modesto game and considers it merely a warm-up for the Monterey game.

Thanksgiving Game To Be Last For the Season

Hartnell will end the '49 season against Monterey Peninsula College at Monterey on Thanksgiving Day next Thursday. This is a clash that has been building up all year. Neither team has had a very successful season. Monterey has two wins, two ties, and four losses, while Hartnell has two wins and six losses.

Monterey lost to Stockton two weeks ago, 44-6, while Hartnell lost to the same team 13-6.

Although the Panthers have been riddled with injuries all year, they will go into the Monterey game with more spirit than any shown all year. This game will undoubtedly develop into a very rough match as Monterey will be trying to avenge last year's trouncing by Hartnell, 59-7, and both teams wish to end the season with a win.

The Lobos have some smooth-running backs in Al Matthews, Joe Grammatico, and John Anastasia. Dick Narvaez, the 200 pound quarterback is an excellent passer, especially of the exceptionally long variety.
